Headteacher's Greeting

By Mr E.R. Gayle

We have come to the end of another month and term at Hyland House School. It is my privilege to thank the children, staff, and parents for making it a big success. Each day, I reflect on how God has been blessing us in so many ways at this school and always hasten to give Him all the glory.

Thanks to your fantastic support, our children enjoyed World Book Day. Children and some staff dressed in their favourite book character's costume. The children enjoyed the assembly, which involved Pastor Fajardo, Dr. Ashley McFarlane, and author Melissa Genfi. The children had their devotion from Pastor Fajardo and received inspiration from Dr. McFarlane, who told them of a book he read which inspired him to become a doctor. Melissa shared extracts from her book to remind the pupils that they are more powerful than they believe. She engaged pupils in thinking, financial education, and decision-making skills from her latest book. It was a tremendous day where children delved into reading in a different manner. Seeing the children's desire to replicate their favorite characters reminds me of the tremendous responsibility we all have, which is to ensure that each child reads for 20 minutes each night. I would like to encourage you to support your children with their home reading and see the difference it will make to their education.

I want to also recognise the number of mothers who attended the EYFS Mother's Day event. Your presence is testament to your commitment to your child's education. The morning was well-planned and executed by the staff in that department to teach our pupils from a very young age to appreciate the role mothers play in our lives.

On March 15th, our pupils and staff paraded radiant red clothing as a sign of their support for Red Nose Day. In our assembly, the children learned the significance of Comic Relief Day. They recognised that there are many others who are not as fortunate as they are. Thanks to your donations and purchase of the red noses, we were able to raise £136 for charity.

The Week of Prayer provided a forum for our chaplain, Pastor Fuller, to offer some spiritual guidance to our children. He expertly and skillfully led the morning devotions for the children during the week. He was able to bring alive a challenging concept about evangelizing in the cities to our pupils, and no doubt I believe it has lasting impressions on their young minds. Each day, our children were excited about the experience and they looked forward to his presentations that the pastor would share.

This term, the EYFS team, aided by a grant from the local authority, was able to transform their learning environment using more natural and eco-friendly resources. In our recent visit from the local authority, they were awestruck by the fantastic transformation. I would like to commend everyone who was involved in this. If you are on-site and would like to see it, please speak to the teachers.

If you believe there is an area which we could improve and feel you can support us with this, please do not hesitate to contact me. We are always looking for opportunities to engage with grandparents, parents, carers and friends of Hyland House who would like our school to grow and excel. If you would like to volunteer to help in any way, please kindly let me know and I am always keen to see how we can work together.

May God bless you and your family as we continue to educate for eternity.

School Values

At Hyland House we encourage our children to show the fruits of the Spirit in their daily lives. One of the values we expect of them is LOVE. We believe that our children should demonstrate love in everything they do. We would like you to help us to encourage them to follow the words of Matthew 22: 37, 39 "Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. And the second is like unto it, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself."
